

Schedules and Fees

Arrangements

- ☉ I can offer three presentations during the school day to grades preschool through grade six and enjoy combined classes, but I suggest that you limit the numbers for each session to two to five classes. I am happy to sign books during the day or after school. One additional session is sometimes possible for an additional fee.
- ☉ Conference speaking may include a keynote and two additional breakout sessions or three separate breakout sessions. Professional Development training is customized to your needs.
- ☉ You can plan to add a public library presentation or a family literacy event in conjunction with a school visit or conference—or locally in the Arlington, Massachusetts area (mid-April to December) or near Sarasota, Florida (January to mid-April).
- ☉ I am available for virtual visits (using Google Hangouts or Skype) with your class or library group.
- ☉ I am also available for virtual Professional Development work.
